A Saxon-Latine and English Dictionary, lately published by Mr. Sumner. A most learned and elaborate work, and useful for all sorts of men in this Nation, that desire to understand the reason of what they speak: sold by Dan. White at the seven Stars in St. Pauls Church-yard.

If any good to th' Clyent th' Term affords,
'Tis in his Lawyers Sugred-Silver-Words !
As, Come, Goodman, thy Cause is good ; I've got
An Order here, will cut thy Enemies Throat ;
Wer't thou at home, thy bus'ness should not be Neglected : Come, give me my next Terms Fee.
And thus each Clown is made a very Mopus ;
But yet it is,——Finis coronat opus.

What part the Moon governs in Mans Body, being in any of the Twelve Signes.

Head and Face.

♈ Mans Head and Face, Heavens Ram obey,
 ♉ His Neck, the Neck-strong Bull doth sway :
 ♊ Ti.^r Arm-twinning Twin: guide Hands and Arms;
 ♋ Brest, Sides, and Stomach, Cancer charms.
 ♌ The Lyon rules our Back and Heart ;
 ♍ Bowels and Bully's Virgo's part.
 ♎ Reins, Haunches, Navil, Libra friends ;
 ♏ Bladder and Secrets Scorpio tends.
 ♐ The Half-horst Bowman claims the Thighs ;
 ♑ And to the Kid our Knees suffice.
 ♒ Our Legs are but the Butlers Fees ;
 ♓ The Fish our Footsteps oversees.

Well! once again, my Pen hath passage free;
And though my Flitting-fancy fetter'd be,
'Twill shake its Links off, like the Royal Slave;
Though Chronus in the Scorpion play the Knave:
"He'll hit me home! So he will some more high;
"That dare not look their Fate i' th' Face, as I.

Jove squares with Mars; and that's no sooner gon,
But he's in opposition of the Sun.

Dull Hypocrites exhort us in their Stories,

For to be holy! and reject Earths Glories;

Yet those blest Saints! [if once they come to tryal]

Are drowsiest Patterns of [such] self-denial

March has 31 days.

Here Mercury and Mars, each other square,
And He, and Jove, in opposition are;

Fore-telling private Consultations, that
May prejudice the Quiet of our State.

*Old sores break forth, new discontents arise ;
To plague us, for our fresh Idolatries.*

Stilbon with Chronos, from the Virgins Chair

In opposition is, which clears the Air

Of lofty Borean-blasts, and storms of Rain ;

Oh! that it could the Treason-plottin'-brain!

For in this Month, [such is the Law of Fate !]
Is natures' punishment !

Is Baseness pregnant in each vulgar Pace.

May hath xxxi days.

The happy Aspects now, make blest each day
This Month affords; that all the year were May!
For now, we have rejoycings; happy News!
Our Enemies turn Friends; and those that use
Us to neglect, do Court, and woo us now:
Thrice happy England! were but all Months so.

June hath xxx days.

Some say, Things ill begun, scarce prosper well ;
But that's not always true ; this month doth tell
Us other things : For Chronus here doth square
Luna and Venus. Jove and Merc'ry are
In Quartile also ; but yet notwithstanding
Their Evil's banish'd, by good, countermanding.

July 1660.

On the nineteenth of this Month, there doth arise
Procyon, to usher Phœbus through the skyes;
And angry Phenon from the Imo-Celi
Doth square them both. From whence this news I tell you;
He sharpens Syrius teeth; and Dog-days (now)
Will feel more parching then th' were wont to do.

August hath xxxi days.

The Austrian State seems forward to advance;
And home-bred Fars, afflict divided France:
The Swede laments; the Flemings jealous are;
Yet [to prevent distrusts] do promise fair:
This month prenotes to Europe direful things;
For th' only Actors in the Play are Kings.

September hath xxi days.

The third day of this month, hath happy been
To England twice; but once unhappy seen:
First, on this day, was Dunbar dreadful fight;
Next, on the same, young Charles was put to flight;
And last of all, great Cromwel then departed,
And left poor England sad; yet, merry-hearted.

Here's six Conjunctions of th' Erratic Stars,
In Scorpio; presaging home-bred jars:

Our substance her by's scattered; and we
Incarcerated, and debas'd shall be!

Now, let the giddy Zealot violate,

(And rent the chain of) this prodigious Fate.

Religions Rayes upon us now may shine,
For Jove's in friendship with great London's signe;
Courting the Sun and Mars, and Stilbon too;
And not one Aspect to cross what they do.
Our Faith is more enlarged by the sword,
Then by the greatest Presbyterians word.

December hath xxxi days.

There's nothing a beginning hath, but must
(In th' winding sheet of time) be laid in dust:
Old time doth make the sturdiest Oak to bow:
It conquer'd conqu'ring Alexander too:
'Tis time [alone] befools the best of men:
To time [for this time] I submit my Pen.

Π Ρ Ο Γ Ν Ω Σ Τ Ι Κ Ο ' Ν :

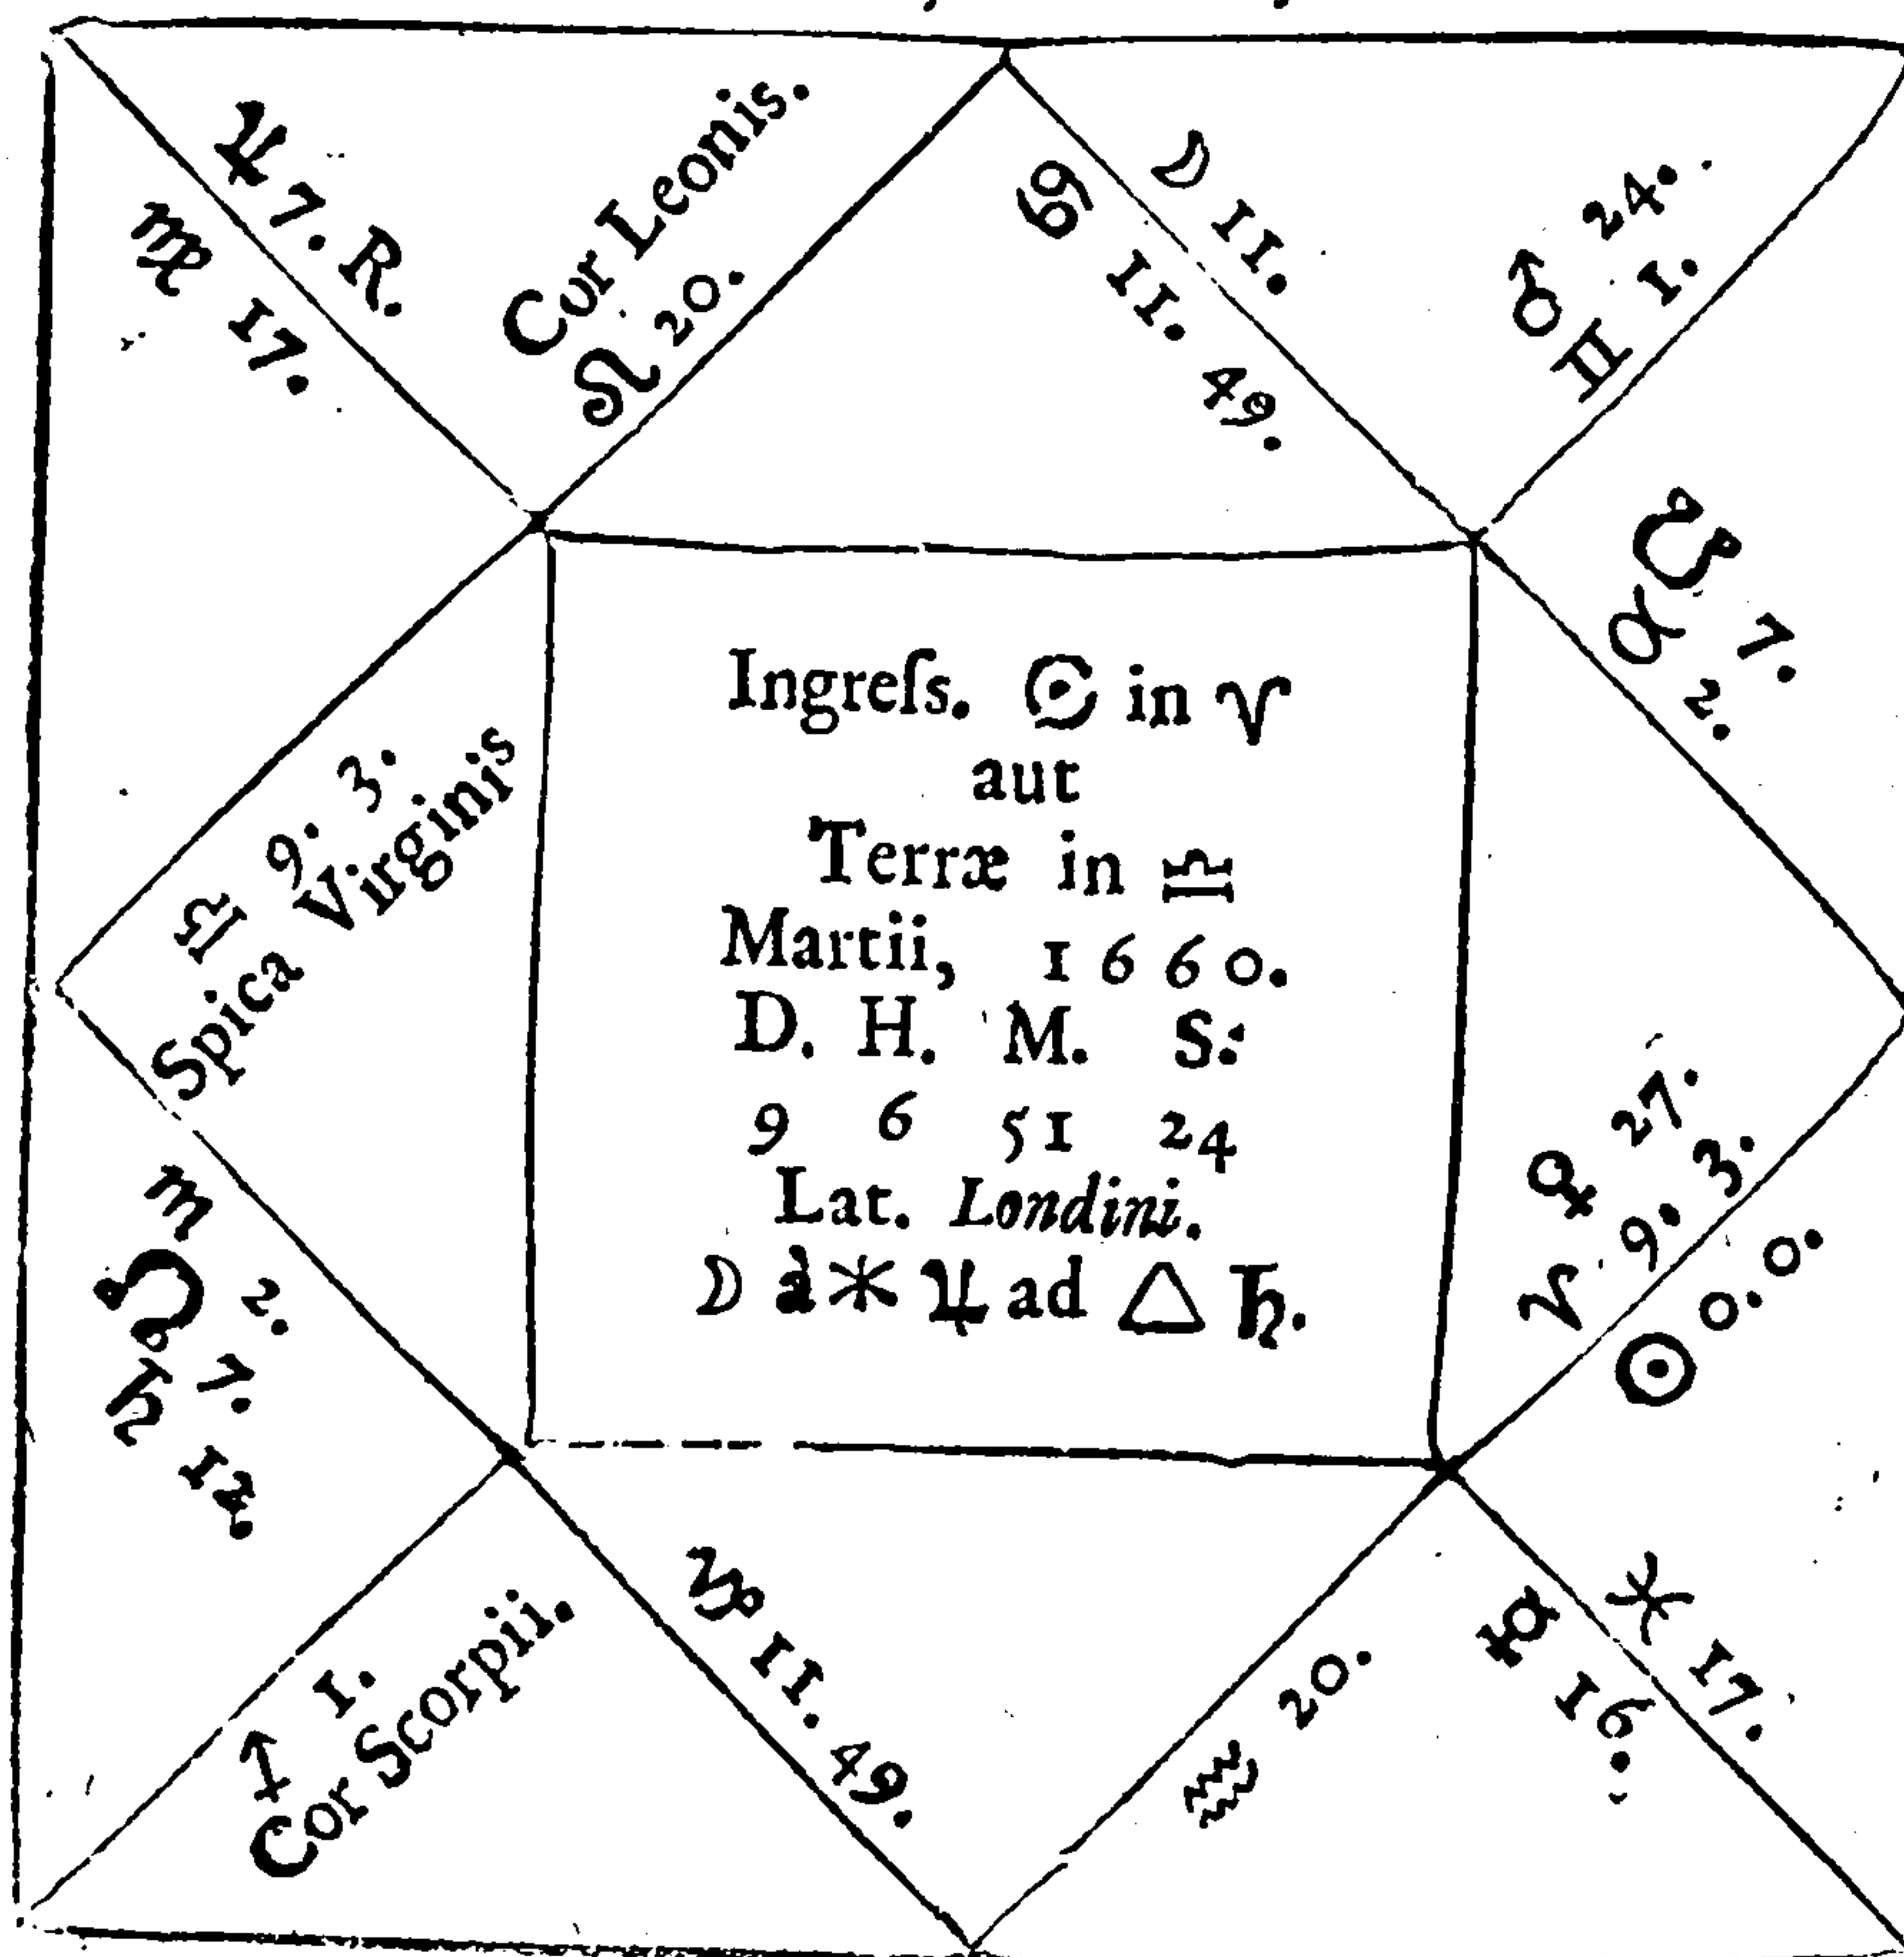

O R,

An Astrological Prediction of the state of the present Year 1660. deduced from the Figure of the WORLD, &c.

WHat I purpose to pursue in this years Ephemeris, shall be according to the Limits prescribed in the Title Page. The two first Particulars are contained in the Kalendar before-going ; and the four last I shall here take notice of ; viz.

1. The State of the year.
2. Rules instructing how to judge questions.
3. Bethem's Centiloquium Englished.
4. An Apologie for Astrologic, &c.

SECT. I. Of the State of the Year.

The State of the Year.

In this Figure of the worlds Revolution, we have the signe of Justice ascending on the Eastern Finitor ; the Moon is in Cancer [her own house] mediating heaven. And she being the most potent Planet in the Figure, may claim the Dominion of the year. Her separation and application, are both good : for she defluxeth from the friendly Sextile of Jupiter (a Planet posited in the eleventh house) first, to the Trine of Saturn located in the second house, and Lord of the fourth and fifth ; next, to a Trine of Mercury. Which friendly Configurations, denote some kinde of happiness, that shall revive the hearts of the afflicted Commonalty ; for they carry more of balsame, then corrosive in their presages : and promise rather to help, then hurt or hinder this almost lost and undone Nation. And it may be hoped, that there will be some endeavours used to put a stop to that spreading Ulcer of Confusion which we have for many years together been plagued with, and have shrewdly groaned under. Yet I cannot positively say, (though I heartily wish it) that this year shall effect our endeavoured happiness and quietude ; I doubt it will prove a work of longer time. Nevertheless in the general, it promiseth to heal and consolidate our former dangerous wounds, rather then any further fret them.

It is the opinion of the learned Haly, --- Si quando ☽ fuerit anni domina, & potens, & in bono loco, & libera in fortunis, significat pluvias, & utiles in aptis temporibus, & homines sani erunt in suis dictis veri dici, maxime, si recepta fuerit, &c. (1.) If when the Moon shall be Dispositrix of the year, powerful, and well posited, free from the ill beams of Saturn or Mars ; in that Revolution there shall happen many profitable showrs, and those in fit and apt times, viz. when the teeming Earth shall have need thereof. Men generally shall be strong and healthful, and shall accustome themselves to speak the truth one of another, [a thing altogether a stranger to our times !] chiefly, if the Moon be received of any fortunate Planet : the Moon (you see) is strong and well affected, in Sextile of Jupiter, and in Trine of Saturn and Mercury ; which according to the first part of the Aphorism, may occasion many profitable and pleasant showrs, and those at apt times requiring them, rejoycing the heart of the Farmer and honest-minded Country-man : but the latter part of the Text, viz. that men shall be healthful, &c. I a little question, because Sol is in the sixth house, and Jupiter Lord thereof is Retrograde, and almost in Quartile of Mars, and in opposition of Mercury his Dispositor; which positions seem to portend, that men will not be very apt to speak the truth of each other neither, but rather the contrary. In another place the same Author speaks—

Et si ☿ fuerit firma, id est, in angulo, vel succedenti, & in dignitatibus suis, & similiter applicuerit planetae firmo & potenti & dignitatibus, significat quod populus in illo anno erit in bono statu, & mutabitur de bono in bonum, & de una abundantia in aliam, & de lucris in Lucra. If in a Revolution the Moon shall be firm or strong, viz. in an Angle or house succedent, and there essentially dignified, applying to a Planet strong and powerful in his dignities, it denotes the state of the people in that year to be good and prosperous, and their conditions shall be changed from one degree of happiness to another, and from gain to gain, Haly pars 8. Cap. 6.

But we go on to the positions of other Planets—Si quando ♄ fuerit in secunda domo, & Dominus secunde domus applicuerit ei, significat bonum statum, & Lucra in Magistris & laborationibus, &c. If ♄ shall be posited in the second house, (as here he is) and the Lord of the second applying to him, it portends the condition of the common man to be good and gainful, and that he shall thrive by his Labours and Profession. Haly pars 8. cap. 7. ♄ is posited in the second house; and although Mars Lord thereof do not apply unto him, yet he is in Conjunction of Caput Draconis, in Trine of the Moon and Mercury, and in Sextile of Jupiter also. Ergo, the common mans condition may be good, and he may thrive by his Profession and Labours, and live perhaps more happy and contented, then those of a superior degree. So from Saturn we come to Jupiter.

Si fuerit ♃ in undecima domo, multiplicabuntur fortune, & habebunt homines bonam vitam & longam, in toto Climate illo, &c. If Jupiter shall be posited in the eleventh house, Happiness shall be multiplied upon men, and they shall generally (who are then born in that Climate) be blessed with a good and long life, &c. Haly ut supra. This Aphorism lies lyable to the same Restriction as the first cited. For Jupiter is Retrograde, and in detriment, and not far from the Quadrate of Mars, and opposition of Mercury his Dispositor: therefore if by his pos-tion men arrive but at a moderate happiness, let them give God thanks, and be contented, though they should miss of a continued and multiplied good.

Next, to the position of Venus we descend—Si ♀ fuerit in septima domo, &c. If Venus shall be posited in the 7th house, strong, &c. she excites men to love, and to court and dally with women more frequently and passionately, then at other times; they shall contract Wedlock apace, and celebrate many marriages, and such as shall be both joyous, fortunat: and successful. Venus is no way afflicted; nor is she (indeed) in Configuration with any Planet except Mars, (her friend and Dispositor) with whom she is in Sextile: therefore her good significations shall no manner of way be frustrated, or cut off. Her Sextile with Mars Lord of the seventh, should mightily accord persons that have long been at difference; and occasion an abatement of litigiousness and strife; and per consequens make less work for Lawyers then formerly.

Now, after all the Arguments of good, (that we may avoid partiality and flattery, two Strumpets commonly courted by our greatest pretendrs to Astrologie) let us look upon the position of fiery Mars in the ninth house—Si ♂ fuerit in nona domo, abscinduntur itinera, & erunt in itineribus latrones & prædones multi, &c. If Mars shall be posited in the ninth house, (as here) it hinders or occasions prevention of many Journies by Land, and Voyages by Sea, and creates much robbery, and other villanies upon the Road, and Pirates good store at Sea. At Land we shall be pestered with many Knaves, Thieves, Cheats and Trapanners; and divers of them shall do much mischief, under the pretence and cloak of Honesty and Religion; as the Quartile of Mars and Mercury from the ninth house, and dignities of Jupiter, aptly prenote.

Sol being in the sixth house, threatens some kinde of infirmities in the eyes of men; chiefly, by being in Quartile of Luna Lady of the year. And portends also some kinds of griefs and misfortunes to our Governours, according to that of Haly—Si quando ☉ fuerit in sexta domo, habebit Rex illo anno, tristitias, & infirmitates, &c. The Arabians called all their principal Governours, Kings; we therefore in England, for want of one, must understand the Aphorism of such.

Lastly, I come to Mercury, whom I finde posited upon the Cusp

The State of the Year.

Cusp of the sixth, in his detriment and fall. Si ☿ fuerit in sexta, accident infirmitates, & dolores in infantibus, &c. He signifies that infirmities and dolours shall happen to Children, and that very grievous, because he is in Quartile of Mars, and opposition of Jupiter. Thus you have the general significations of the Planets positions in this years Revolution.

*In this Discourse, I have not flatter'd Kings;
Nor made dull Musick on the Sybills strings;
I have not made my Art the Baud of th' times;
Nor startl'd men, with Mother Shipton's Rhythmes:
I hate to praise and dispraise with a Pen;
To fawn on this, or fright that sort of Men:
And though I weare not a Magnetic Charm,
I have Truths Bracelet bound about mine Arm;
Which Pallas-like protects mine Art and I,
While PARASITES [forgotten] basely dye!*

There are three Eclipses in this year, viz. two of the Moon, and one of the Sun: but neither of them being visible in our Horizon, I shall spare all further discourse thereof. This shall serve therefore for the General Judgments of this year. For Monthly Judgments, I have not troubled my self so much as once to take notice of them, because what is built upon them, is as notoriously false and frivolous, as their Promoters reasonless and vain; as was the last year conspicuously proved, in our Herculean Astrologers pitiful Predictions concerning Richard Lord Protector of England, and the King of Sweden, &c.

*But 'tis no wonder, that which wanteth ground,
In application, proves corrupt, [unsound.]*

Teaching how to judge Questions.

AS in my last years book I taught how to erect a Figure, here I intend to instruct the ingenious Reader how to judge a Question upon a Figure so erected. You must know, that in an Astrological sence, there can be no doubt propounded, but pertains unto one of the twelve Houses; as I have largely proved in an Appendix to my Doctrine of Nativities lately published.

Of Astrological Questions.

1. If therefore you would be resolved of any thing relating to the life of a person, of an absent party, of a ship at Sea, you must have regard to the first house.
2. If concerning the Substance, Riches, Goods or Monies, of any one; or of wages due, &c. you must observe the second house.
3. If about Journies, or concerning Brethren, Sisters or Kindred, or of Rumors raised, or Advice given, &c. look to the third house.
4. When concerning a Father, or Treasure hid, or a thing mislaid, or of Houses, Lands, Inheritances, &c. regard the fourth house.
5. If concerning a Child or Children, or of a Womans being with child, time of delivery, safe or dangerous; or of Messengers, Agents; or of Gaming, Plays; or of Taverns, Ale-houses, Victualling-houses; take notice then of the fifth house.
6. When about Sicknes, the cause, kinde, or cure of the same; of recovery or irrecovery therefrom; of the Uncle or Aunt; of Servants, their Fidelity or Knavery; of small Cattle, if good to deal in them, or not, then respect the sixth house.
7. If concerning Law, Controversies, Contentions, Enemies, Partnerships, Fugitives, Thefts; or of any manner of business relating to Love or Marriage, have regard to the seventh house.
8. When concerning the Wives Dowry, or Portion; or the Husbands Estate; or of Wills, Deeds, Legacies, &c. of the manner or time of death; or whether Man or Wife dye first, minde the eighth house.
9. If concerning Arts or Sciences, Law, Religion, or their Professors; Dreams, Visions, or long Journies, or Voyages, &c. observe the 9th house.
10. If concerning Emperours, Kings, Princes, Dukes, Lords, Colonels, &c. Magistrates, or of any preferment or honour; of the Mother, or any thing relating to her, have respect to the tenth house.
11. If relating to the Fidelity or Falseness of Friends, or Assistants; or any thing that one may expect, regard the eleventh house.
12. When concerning Captivity or Imprisonment, or private Enemies, or great Cattle, as the Ox, Horse, Cow, &c. respect the twelfth house.

The Learned Pezelius, pithily Comprizes all their significations in these six Latine Verses: viz.

*Prima domus vitam largitur, & altera Nummos,
Tertia dat Fratres, venerandos quarta Parentes,
Prolem Quinta dabit, Morbos tibi sexta minatur,
Septima Conjugii domus est, Octavaq; Mortis,
Religio Sequitur, confert tibi decima Honores,
Hinc tibi Amicus erit, postremam Inimicus habebit.*

Thus in English.

First house shews life; the second wealth doth give;
The third how Brethren, fourth how Parents live;
Issue the fifth; the sixth diseases bring;
The seventh Wedlock; and the eighth death's sting;
The ninth Religion; the tenth honour shews;
Friendship th' eleventh; and the twelfth our Woes!

Having acquainted you with the significations of the houses, and the Questions thereon depending; I shall next teach, how things may may be brought to pass. There are five ways to bring things to pass, viz.

1. When the Planets signifying the Querent, and the Person or Thing quesited, are going to Conjunction in good places of the Figure, or when applying by Sextile or Trine.

2. When the significator of the thing enquired after, shall be essentially dignified, and applies to the Lord of the Ascendent, (which always signifies the Querent) the thing will be perfected, before it is expected.

3. If the Lord of the Ascendent and thing quesited, apply friendly to each other from signes or houses they delight in, the business will be perfected.

4. The significators not beholding, yet if a good Planet translate, or collect their beams of Light, the matter will be perfected.

5. When the promising Planets dwell in houses proper and convenient, though there be no Aspect, the matter may be brought to perfection. As for instance: If a question be propounded concerning preferment, though there be no Aspect between the Lord of the Ascendent and tenth house, yet if the Lord of the Ascendent be posited in the Tenth, and Lord of the Tenth in the Ascendent, the business will be brought to perfection. Et sic in aliis.

Now, as there are particular significators of men and things, which are the Lords of particular houses signifying them; so there are general significators also; which ought seriously to be considered in every Question propounded. As,

The Sun signifies Honour and Eminency, and the Patrons thereof.

Saturn, Lands, Houses, Tenements, Country-men, old Men, &c.

Jupiter, Judges, Senators, Divines, the Law, Divinity, Riches.

Mars, Souldiers, Physicians, War, Theft, Cruelty.

Venus, Women generally, Pleasure, Pastime, Delight, Odours.

Mercury, Scribes, Secretaries, Mathematicians, Servants, &c.

Lastly, the Moon is a general Significatrix in all Questions, unless she be Governess of that house from whence you require judgment. And if she be in any good Configuration with the significator of the matter or thing enquired after, the business may much the easier be performed. For a more satisfactory and large account of these things, I shall refer you to the Appendix of my Doctrine of Nativities lately published.

SECT. 3.

Bethem's Centiloquium Englished.

1. WE will begin this Book, according to custome used in the judgment of the Stars.

2. Thou mayst know, when a Planet is retrograde, he is as a man infirm, stupified, and solicitous.

3. If Cadent, he is as a man dead, and hath no motion.

4. Combust, as a man in prison, without hope of liberty.

5. Stationary to Retrogradation, as a healthful man receding from health; yet there is a hope of recovery remaining.

6. Stationary to Direction, as a sick man amending.

7. Belieged, as a man fearful, between two Enemies.

Bethem's hundred Aphorisms.

8. A Planet between Ψ and Ω , is as a man pleasant and free from want.

9. Aspected of the Infortunes from the fourth, as a man on whom death's coming.

10. In Aspect of his Enemy, as a man fearing to be trappanned.

11. In \odot of an Infortune, as one fighting with his Enemy.

12. In \odot of a Fortune, as one in his Friends Embraces.

13. In anothers house, who rules the same Trigon, as a man with his friend.

14. Cadent from House or Exaltation, as one absent from his abode.

15. In House or Exaltation, as one in his Castle, or strong hold.

16. There Retrograde, as a sick man at home.

17. Combust in his own house, as a man confined thereto by his king.

18. In his own Dignity and Cadent, as a man vexed and fearful.

19. Fortunate Planets Retrograde, are infortunate: If Cadent from Angles, or their Houses, &c. as one hoping for good, but misses it.

20. A Fortune Retrograde with an Infortune, strengthens the Infortunes nature, but abates the worth of his own.

21. An Infortune in his house direct, and there joynd to a Fortune, his malignity shall turn to good.

22. A Planet in the last deg. of a signe, as one falling from his estate.

23. If in the first degrees, he is but weak in signification.

24. From the first degree to the 15th, a Planet is rising; but from the 15th to the 25th, he is compleat in strength.

25. In the last degrees of a signe, as a man leaving his house.

26. An Earthy Planet in the Ascendent strong, argues good in any thing.

27. A Planet not in his own house, as a man knocking at anothers door; and his signification is to be slighted, he having no power.

28. When Planets are with \odot , their significations are abated.

29. When Planets are in the last degrees of a signe Retrograde, their judgments are transmitted, Light lessened, and Glories abated.

30. A Planet seven degrees distant from \odot in his own house, R. as a man in his Castle in the power of his Enemy, striving to abandon slavery.

31. In the house of his Enemy, as a man in such a condition.

32. A Planet in his own house, free from affliction, declares the perfection of the Question, or thing interrogated.

33. Δ separating from a Planet, shews what is past.

34. But applying to one, denotes what is to come.

35. She separating from H , shews sorrow, discord, trouble.

36. From Ψ , Mirth, Pleasure, Wealth and Good Fortune.

37. From \odot , Contention, Strife, Bloodshed, Bonds, False witness, &c.

38. From \odot , Sickneses, Cares, Fears, Imprisonments, &c.

39. From Ω , Lust, Sport, Laughter, Dancing, Singing, &c.

40. From Ψ , according as Ψ is posited.

41. Δ applying to a Planet, shews things to come, according as her application is with them.

42. Δ fortunate in the morning, the Querents business prospers the day long. One born then, will be fortunate, &c.

Bethem's Hundred Aphorisms.

43. Unfortunate in the morning, shews Corruption in the Questions &c. he that is born then, dyes quickly, or will be sickly.
44. ♀ in ☿ of ♄, an ill day for every work, &c.
45. ♀ in ☿ ♃, a good day for all things.
46. ♀ in ☿ ♄, unfortunate for every purpose.
47. ♀ in ☿ ☉, fit for private business. He that falls sick, dyes.
48. ♀ in ☿ ♀, a good day, chiefly in Love-matters.
49. ♀ in ☿ ♁, a good day, chiefly in Contracts and Writings.
50. ♀ in ☿ ♂, a bad day in all things.
51. In ☿ ♃, laudable in all things. (Vix Credo.)
52. In ☿ ♄, begin nothing of weight that day.
53. In ☿ ☉, good in no manner of work.
54. In ☿ ♀, a laudable day in all things. (Vix Credo.)
55. In ☿ ♁, a good day for every work. Not for Contracts, I'm sure.
56. In ☿ ♂, a bad day. Chiefly, in meeting with Kings, and great Persons. Let not noble and eminent men take Journies; for they prove ill. The sick man will hardly escape.
57. In ☿ ♃, a good day. In access to great men, to obtain friends.
58. In ☿ ♄, unfortunate in all things; chiefly in contending with great men; in Marriage; the sick man dyes, or bleeds.
59. In ☿ ☉, evil for sick men: the like to go to great men, &c.
60. In ☿ ♀, good in all things, chiefly in Love-matters.
61. In ☿ ♁, good to Merchandize, Study, or converse with Kings.
62. In ☿ ♂, good to converse with ancient people, or to begin any work of a Saturnine Nature.
63. In ☿ ♃, good to settle things, and to do Justice, to marry, &c.
64. In ☿ ♄, good to fight the Enemy, to reduce or divide an Army.
65. In ☿ ☉, good to manage the affairs of great persons.
66. In ☿ ♀, excellent in all things, chiefly in Love-matters.
67. In ☿ ♁, good for Contracts, Agreements, Merchandizing.
68. In ☿ ♂, a good day to talk with Magistrates; to Build, Till, &c.
69. In ☿ ♃, a good day in all things; to meet Kings, &c.
70. In ☿ ♄, good to begin War, and end Controversies; to Hunt.
71. In ☿ ☉, good to meet Kings, Princes and Nobles.
72. In ☿ ♀, good for every thing; chiefly in marriage-matters.
73. In ☿ ♁, good to converse with Lawyers, Scribes, Secretaries.
74. ♄ in the Ascendent hurts the Question; Retrograde there, destroys it.
75. In the tenth house, he destroys the most hopeful things.
76. In the seventh, oft changes the business, and brings mischief to it.
77. In the fourth, shews an unhappy end of every business.
78. What ♄ bindeth, ♃ dissolveth.
79. The like doth ♀, in what ♄ bindeth.
80. ♄ separating from ♃ or ♀, undoes what's bound by ♄.
81. The three Superiours in ☿ ☉, corrupt and hinder the Question.
82. ♄ ☿ Sol, shews a good progress, but a bad end of a thing.
83. ♄ in ☿ ☿ ♃, dissolves oppression and violence.
84. In ☿ ☿ ☿ of ♄, prohibits mirth, impedes or destroys the Question.
85. In ☿ ☿ of ♀ in the tenth, the question aims at dishonesty.
86. In ☿ ☿ or ☿ ♄, destroys the Question, makes things idle more

Bethem's Hundred Aphorisms.

87. ♃ in ☿ ☿ ☿ of ♄, hinders his evil, and turns it to good.
88. In ☿ ☿ ☿ of ♄, hinders the force of Generation and Corruption.
89. In ☿ ☿ ☿ of ♀, shews the aptness of the Question, and its good end.
90. In Conjunction ☿ ☿ of ♄, the business enquired after comes to a good end, with an addition to what the Querent expects.
91. The Infortunes in the Ascendent or second house, strong, shews the Querent's fortune to be transmitted from evil to good.
92. In them infortunate, it is then changed from good to evil.
93. 'Tis the same when they are posited in any of the Angles.
94. The Lord of the Ascendent in via Combusta; the Question is corrupted.
95. An Infortune in the tenth or fourth from the Ascendent of the Question, obscures the matter or thing quesited; and the Querent shall tremble to think of the evil attending it.
96. An Infortune in the Ascendent or second, fortunate, portends the business to answer the Querents desire; but shews him to reap small gain thereby.
97. In the same houses infortunate, it denotes the matter or thing enquired after, will come to nought.
98. Few degrees Horoscopical, and the Lord of the Ascendent in the ninth or sixth descending, the Querent never obtains the thing he expects: The Fortunes Cadent, Infortunes Angular, the same.
99. A Planet signifying any matter, evilly disposed at the time of the Querents first moving the same, denotes a vexatious and unhappy end to the thing.
100. When the Significator of a thing is in reception, or good Aspect of an Infortune in an Angle, the Querents business may then be accomplished; but he usually takes away what he gives hopes of at the last. The knowledge of Reception is, when a Planet shall be in the house or exaltation of another, and that other in his; and both there, free from the beams of the Infortunes. Here ends the hundred Aphorisms of Bethem.

SECT. 4.

An Apologie for Astrologie, &c.

UPON the late Renovation or Change of Government, divers persons of all sorts and conditions, were desirous to see what satisfaction the Astrologers of this Nation had afforded in their Presages concerning the same. But all of them finding The Captain-General of Almanack-makers somewhat out in his Predictions relating thereunto; they suddenly, in Passion, resolved by their promiscuous Breaths, to blast the credit and repute of this Art, and the Students therein, Every one crying out, Astrologie is an Imposition, and no better! The Professors thereof Jugglers and Quacks! The very Principal man of them all, hath notoriously failed! He is out in every Prediction! And who would believe any of them? Go they not all by one and the same Rule? Must they not therefore be all alike mistaken!

These

Astrologie Vindicated.

These are generally the out-cries made against us, every where I come; even among the unlearned and ignorant, as well as the skilful and ingenious: Never considering, that some persons (instead of consulting the Stars in the Heavens) consulted with the Angels on Earth onely. And indeed, had but those over-hasty persons been pleased to have adventured a small portion of their pains and patience, to that they lost, and inspected the matter but a little more warily, they might quickly have found what their too sudden passions (by the example of one mans fault) blamed the whole Society [unjustly!] for want of, viz. apparent Predictions (so apparent I mean, as durst in good policy be written) of that so eminent Catastrophe which nappened among us.

For, not onely my self, but Mr. Wharton, Booker, Tanner, Trigge, &c. gave sufficient notice thereof. Nay, it was indeed predicted by most others, who wrote that year, except that onely one single person before spoken of, who was accounted Princeps, the chief of us.

Humanum est errare; 'Tis but like a man to erre: but to erre knowingly, is (beyond all question) a sin of a far deeper dye. Whether that singular person did so or not, I shall not say (others there are, that do avouch it loudly!) but hope and expect he will afford some satisfaction to the world therein, by his own Pen.

Now, if Astrologies Detractors would but shew themselves so charitable, as to peruse my last years Ephemeris; they will, I suppose (unless they have sold themselves Vassals to temerity) retract their rash censures, upon the reading therein these words—There is yet remaining in a discontented sort of persons, the dregs of malice and fury, and they will endeavour to pour out the vials of their wrath—upon Princes and Governours. And a little after—many Scandals, Disgraces, Prodigious Insultations, and Reproaches against Persons of superiour degree. Nay, the very month in which the Mutation happened, viz. April, in my Discourse upon the Moons Eclipse, I say, It portends—many Seditions, Rumours, and Discontents, &c. And in my judgment on the great Eclipse of the Sun in Scorpio, I say, Jupiter his being in Quartile of Mars, and Sol, secretly whispers unto me some subtil Plot and contrivance against those who turn the Helm of affairs in this Nation.

Well! but say the Antagonists, Although these Presages do relate to a Chasm or Dissettlement in the Government; and it be true, that Governours were disgraced, &c. yet, nothing that is here urged, denotes the downfall of a single Person or Governour: And what (say they) can any Astrologer (for the reputation and Honour of his Art) answer to this?

For answer to this Objection, let those that are big with it, peruse what (in my Predictions of the Suns Eclipse) I observe from Auton: Guiff: de Eclipsib: fol. 124. viz.—That the present Ruler shall become odious, and be had in low esteem of all men, by reason of his inactivity and remissness; (and it sometimes threatens the deposing of him.) And immediately I subjoyn, I pray God that these words may not effectually speak English to this British Isle, &c. And indeed I then feared, it would have proved far worse, then God be blessed it hath.

Astrologie Vindicated.

Besides this most plain Prediction from the Eclipse of the Sun (the Patron and true Repreienter of Kings and Governours) I could have given a particular reason thereof, from the Nativity of the worthy Gentleman whose hard fate it was to share in the cruel effects that the Stars then portended to England; but I want room to do it here.

Now, I ask the enemies of Astrologie, what greater satisfaction they could (in so dangerous a matter) have expected, then what I there predicted. That a whole Art should be lightly set by, and vainly esteemed of, for the error and ignorance of any one single Person professing it, is as unjust and unreasonable, as sencelsis and ridiculous. And to this (I dare boldly affirm) the whole Host of our Adversaries, will, with much ardor and readines, set their Seals.

Sero Sapit Ingratus.

So now, my Book, 'tis time we part.
Against next year, I'll get such art,
Shall bear thee up, above the Waves
Of Cheats, Impostors, Fools, and Knaves.
Lo! then thou shalt the Errors shew,
Of Sigils, Laments, th' Chrystal too!
The Charms, and Ignorance of some
That weave in Apollonius Loom:
The Sybils Oracles: And great
Agrippa's Vanities: The heat
Of fam'd Trithemius-Angel-skill:
[But Spades are Spades, and will be still!]
Of Merlin's Monstrous Addle dreams:
Of Mother Shiptons Silly Theams:
Pugh's Prophecies: And Dr. Dee
His Folio of Simplicity;
With other Figments that disgrace
Those Arts the Learned do embrace.

“ Thus Reader view my plot, for next years Book;
“ Mean while vouchsafe to this, thy friendly look.

In fol. 248. line 37. Part 1. of my Doctrine of Nativities, is a mistake, (occasioned by an unhappy Υσεγγυεσθ' τερεν) which I intreat the Reader thus to correct: As sixty is to the Difference of the greater and lesser Ark, so, &c. for which let him read,-----As the difference of the greater and lesser Ark is to sixty; So is the difference of the lesser Ark, and Right or Oblique Ascension, to the Number, or Equation you seek.
